our number one priority*

Architecture by
Scott Brownrigg

Sitting on one of the main routes into Staines-upon-Thames we felt this development deserved a building of stature to mark your arrival into town. Having sat dormant for so long our chief aim was to create a really meaningful open space within Eden Grove. A new place for people to meet and enjoy each other's company; to extend the vibrancy of the high street and blend a new community with the existing one.

The buildings are arranged as pavilions around this shared garden space, orientated to capture as much daylight as possible. The principle materials of white stone with a bronze effect have a restrained, civic quality but are layered in lighter proportions so the richness of activity from people living within the buildings shines through.

The central water feature offers a sense of calmness – standing at the centre of the development to be enjoyed by all.

*Richard McCarthy, Board Director,
Scott Brownrigg*

Sustainability at its heart

At Eden Grove we have included a variety of features to reduce environmental impact and make it easier for you to live a healthy, sustainable lifestyle.

Green living and sustainable development is top of our agenda

As a company, we are committed to reducing energy, water and waste on our construction sites, in our offices and in the homes that we build. Almost all of our developments are built on brownfield land and we always take care to protect and enhance biodiversity and natural habitats.

Our homes include features to encourage sustainable living such as dual-flush WCs, recycling bins, energy-efficient white goods, EV charging points and LED lighting.

A commitment to creating sustainable communities

Every aspect of Eden Grove has been designed to enable residents to live a healthy, sustainable lifestyle. The homes will be built to high standards of sustainable design, focusing on water and energy efficiency, and recycling provision. The development will also create an outdoor environment with a focus on delivering ecological diversity.

Eden Grove is not only an appealing place to live, it is also designed to ensure long-term benefits for the environment and community.

Energy efficiency

The homes at Eden Grove are designed to be very efficient in their use of energy, with features including:

- Double glazed windows
- High levels of thermal insulation and airtightness
- 100% low energy lighting
- Energy efficient white goods throughout
- Photovoltaic solar panels on each roof to serve communal areas
- Energy efficient electric individual hot water cylinders
- Mechanical extract ventilation system

Eden Grove has opted for an electric only energy strategy. As the electricity grid decarbonises over time, this will help ensure homes are low carbon in operation.

Reducing waste

In order to reduce the volume of waste sent to landfill, recycling bins are provided in every home.

Our development has been designed to reduce waste and preserve materials during the build process, with a target of diverting 95% of our waste away from landfill sites.

Reducing water use

Water consuming fixtures and fittings include water efficient taps, showers and dual flush toilets along with water efficient white goods.

Enhancing ecology

The landscaped garden will provide an open space for new trees and plant species offering habitats for many invertebrates and birds.

The landscaping has been designed to provide a net biodiversity gain of 86%, ensuring the development enhances the ecological value of the site.

A key feature of the landscaped garden will be the new pond, which will feature native planting to replicate the natural ecological diversity of the neighbouring Sites of Special Scientific Interest.

Sustainable travel

The development encourages residents to use more environmentally friendly modes of transport with the provision of secure cycle storage and 68 electric vehicle charging points.

Working from home

Residents' can work from home in the comfort and convenience of the co-working space reducing the need to commute.
